WHICH KITCHEN SUITS ME?

Kitchen trend check 2026

Which kitchen really suits me?

How it works:

Tick one answer (a–d) per question.

At the end, count which letter you selected most often.

1. Style & overall look

- a. I like calm, tidy spaces with clean lines
- b. My kitchen should feel homely and radiate warmth
- c. I like to set deliberate accents with colour or contrasts
- d. Design can be visible – even as a statement

2. Colours & materials

- a. Light natural tones, beige, greige or soft greens appeal to me
- b. Wood looks or real wood textures are important to me
- c. I find dark colours or strong contrasts exciting
- d. I like stone, concrete or metal finishes

3. Surfaces & feel

- a. Matte surfaces feel calmer and more modern to me
- b. I value a pleasant, high-quality feel
- c. Glossy or shimmering accents can be used deliberately
- d. Textured surfaces (e.g. wood grooves, stone finishes) appeal to me

4. Care & everyday use

- a. Robust and durable for everyday life
- b. Suitable for daily use, care is secondary
- c. As easy to care for and resistant as possible
- d. Design-oriented and easy to care for

5. Use & lifestyle

- a. The kitchen is primarily a calm place to retreat
- b. Cooking is enjoyment and togetherness for me
- c. The kitchen is a meeting place for family and guests
- d. My kitchen should express my personality

01

Mostly a. selected?

Trend direction: "Matt & calm"

Reduced design, harmonious matte lacquer colours and a timeless, tidy look. Ideal for anyone who values calm, order and durability.

02
